MAJANI

Il cioccolato dal 1796

In 1911, when Fabbrica Italiana Automobili Torino (FIAT) launched a competition for a confection to gift to clients to mark the launch of its latest model, Majani took up the challenge and invented its first four-layered Cremino chocolate (a nod to the car's name, "Tipo 4"), seeing off stiff competition to win. Thus began the story of Cremino Fiat, a classic combination of creamy hazelnut and almond with cocoa mass for a new, heavenly marriage of flavours, as inimitable today as it was then.
